PRODUCT DEFINITION

TRAIL

Don't just get there.
Discover along the way.

A discovery platform that helps people explore cities through curated and personalized journeys rather than isolated destinations.

PRODUCT LOGIC

PROBLEM
Destination-focused discovery

OPPORTUNITY
Journey-oriented discovery

PRODUCT
TRAIL

EXPERIENCE
Connected exploration

```
Café → Bookstore → Street Art → Bakery → Viewpoint
```

TRAIL transforms individual places into connected exploration journeys.

02 · WHAT IS TRAIL?

From individual places to connected journeys

TRAIL connects destinations into a sequenced exploration journey based on the user's context and preferences.

USERS CHOOSE

01 Interests
What do you want to discover?

02 Time
How much time do you have?

03 Location
Where do you want to explore?

04 Distance
How far do you want to go?

05 Preferences
What kind of exploration suits you?

↓

TRAIL
Analyzes these inputs and presents a sequence of complementary places and experiences as one journey.

EXAMPLE

Coffee Shop → Bookstore → Street Art → Local Bakery → Sunset Point

TRAIL is not simply finding places. It is connecting them into a journey.

03 · WHO IS TRAIL FOR?

Audience & problem

PRIMARY USERS

Curious young explorers

Students and young adults who enjoy exploring cities, have limited time, want less-obvious places and don’t want to spend significant effort planning.

SECONDARY USERS

Local explorers / Trail creators

People who know interesting local places, enjoy creating routes, want to share experiences and can contribute curated trails.

THE PROBLEM

People use multiple platforms to discover individual places, then manually decide:

? What should I combine?

? In what order?

? How long will it take?

? Does the route make sense?

FRAGMENTED + PLANNING-HEAVY

TODAY

Search → Save → Compare → Manually Plan

TRAIL’S RESPONSE

Individual discoveries → Connected journey

04 · HOW DOES TRAIL WORK?

The product flow

01 Discover
Choose what you are curious about.
FOOD · ART · CULTURE · NATURE · BOOKS

02 Set your context
Time, location and preferred distance.

03 Choose interests
Coffee, books, art, culture, nature, food.

04 Get a trail
TRAIL creates or recommends a sequence of complementary discoveries.

05 Start exploring
Follow the trail from one discovery to the next.

06 Complete + share
Finish the trail, save it or share the journey.

PRODUCT LOGIC
INTERESTS + TIME + LOCATION + DISTANCE

↓ TRAIL ↓

STOP 01 → STOP 02 → STOP 03 → STOP 04

05 · WHAT DOES THE USER EXPERIENCE?

From curiosity to exploration

01 Discover

“What are you curious about today?”

FOOD · ART & CULTURE · NATURE · BOOKS

02 Time + distance

“How much time do you have?”

1 HOUR · 2 HOURS · 3+ HOURS

“How far do you want to explore?”

1 KM · 3 KM · 5 KM+

03 · YOUR PERSONALIZED TRAIL

The Slow Sunday Trail

5 STOPS · 3.2 KM · 2 HOURS

01 / 05

04 · NEXT DISCOVERY

Hidden Bookstore

12 MIN WALK

“Worth the detour.”

START TRAIL →

Instead of a list of places, TRAIL packages discoveries into a journey users can understand, start and experience step by step.

06 · WHY USE TRAIL?

The user value

01 Less planning
No need to research and sequence every place yourself.

02 More discovery
Surfaces interesting places beyond your original destination.

03 Built around the journey
Focuses on how places connect, not isolated destinations.

04 Fits your context
Interests · time · location · distance.

05 More room for spontaneity
Explore without planning everything beforehand.

THE CORE TRANSFORMATION

BEFORE

Research → Compare → Save → Plan → Navigate

WITH TRAIL

Choose → Curate → Connect → Explore

TRAIL reduces planning effort while creating more opportunities for discovery.

07 · WHAT MAKES TRAIL DIFFERENT?

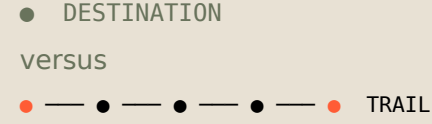

From destination discovery to journey discovery

TRADITIONAL DISCOVERY

01	Search for a place
02	View individual results
03	Choose what interests you
04	Save places
05	Manually plan the route
06	Navigate

TRAIL

01	Choose what interests you
02	Set your context
03	Receive a connected trail
04	Explore discoveries in sequence
05	Save / share the journey

TRAIL is not just about finding places. It is about connecting them into a journey.

08 · VALUE PROPOSITION

The TRAIL value proposition

FOR	Curious young explorers
WHO	Want to discover interesting places without spending significant time planning
IS A	Discovery platform
THAT	Creates personalized exploration journeys from connected places and experiences
UNLIKE	Destination-focused discovery tools
TRAIL	Organizes discoveries into a journey based on interests, time, location and distance

THE VALUE

FIND PLACES → CONNECT PLACES → DISCOVER THE JOURNEY

FINAL PRODUCT STATEMENT

“TRAIL helps people spend less time deciding where to go and more time discovering what’s along the way.”

TRAIL

DON'T JUST GET THERE.
DISCOVER ALONG THE WAY.